JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

A SOFT LANDING!

MCS' science teachers definitely think of ways to ignite students' minds when it comes to learning. In Mrs. Vogel's science class 8th grade students were asked to create a shock absorbing structure for a 'lunar lander'. They were given a variety of materials to design their structures. The astronaut was represented by a bouncy ball and the lander was a plastic cup. The cup had to remain upright and the ball had to stay in the cup. By the pictures, the students enjoyed this project!

UNDER THE SEA – BLOOPS!

The 7th grade students also had a unique science lesson learning about reproduction and growth, specifically how genes code for various traits. They were instructed to create 'Bloops' creatures based off a chromosome and a set of specific combination of alleles. We love how creative the students were in determining the traits of their 'Bloops' and it looks like the class enjoyed it too!

TAPPING ALL THE WAY TO GERMANY

Sophia was recognized by her JH classmates this week for her appearance at the International Dance Organizations World Tap Championships in Riesa, Germany. She auditioned and was selected to be part of the USA team that competed from November 27-December 1. The competition included 20 other countries and Sophia competed in a duo, trio and small group. Sophia's duo barely missed the finals and tied for 7th with another of Team USA's duos. However, her trio and small group dances made it to the finals, an amazing feat! As a new part of Team USA this year, both dances were overwhelmingly accepted as a new style of tap dancing and they were both awarded silver medals. Great job Sophia!

ELEMENTARY NEWS

KINDERGARTEN BRINGS CHRISTMAS CHEER

Our Kindergarten class had their time to shine for the Elementary Chapel on Wednesday. As their smiles beamed from the stage, dressed in their Christmas best, they sang loud for all to hear. A special highlight was when a few of the High School students, using American Sign Language, led the kindergarten class in "Jesus Loves Me". We saw lots of proud parents capturing memories that will last a lifetime!

PRESCHOOL NEWS

OH, CHRISTMAS TREE!

Ms. Lessel's three year old class performed their Christmas Program, "Christmas Tree Story" to parents and family this week. They were greeted with jingle bells, songs, and a story as performed by their preschool children. It was a sweet gathering to remind families of the true meaning of Christmas!
